Seeking to connect qualified veterans with Lehigh Valley
employers

Veterans

Have you been honorably or General discharged from active-duty service within the last six years and are seeking first-time employment in a good paying job in the Lehigh Valley of Pennsylvania?

We can connect you with Lehigh Valley businesses which are actively seeking veterans. V-Portfolio has been designed to expedite employer searches for that special veteran they need and getting you that needed interview.

The product is oriented on the blue collar and first-level supervisor side of industry and selling the skills that veterans, upon active-duty separation, already have. V-Portfolio allows you to market yourself “as-is” using a uniform, searchable ePortfolio concept. It is clean and simple – attempting to avoid common missteps in getting you to that all-important, first interview.

It is also more oriented on the vital small and medium business sectors, the backbone of the Lehigh Valley economy.

How to get started

It's easy as 1,2,3 for Phase II

1. Contact us at JOVE@lvmac.org
2. You will then be connected to a Committee Coach to help you properly register, post and maintain your application on the website, www.vetportfolio.org.
3. An employer contacts you.

Employers

Looking for a hard-working, motivated, ethical employee who is qualified for the work you need done – or with a little guidance on your part, can soon be? Do you really want to find veterans to hire, but have had no luck? Give us a try.

We can connect your business to honorably discharged veterans with skills who are willing to work in the Lehigh Valley. Those with military serve are a major source of skilled and semi-skilled labor for this nation.

V-Portfolio highlights a veteran's skills and potential in a slightly different way. It is oriented on the blue collar and first-level supervisor workforce. It emphasizes experience and proven performance. And, it can attract those who would never otherwise consider working in the Lehigh Valley. Lastly, it is built with small and medium businesses in mind, the backbone of the Lehigh Valley economy.

We screen our candidates

The Recruiting Committee, consisting of several members experienced in professional recruitment, vets each applicant before posting an ePortfolio profile.

The committee evaluates an honorably discharged Veteran on job qualifications, educational background and other key factors. Each Veteran is assigned a Committee Coach to ensure a properly to ensure a properly completed ePortfolio is submitted.

You get direct contact

V-Portfolio's goal is to be a networking site to connect Veterans with businesses which actively want to support veterans through hiring them. Once the connection is made on V-Portfolio, then the rest is up to whomever manages your hiring by contacting the applicant directly for an interview.
